

Reliable Controls announces Adam Burton as new regional sales manager for the US Great Lakes region

Victoria, BC, Canada—Reliable Controls is pleased to appoint Adam Burton as regional sales manager for its Great Lakes United States sales region. In this position Adam is accountable for the sustainable success of Reliable Controls Authorized Dealers across seven states in the Midwest.

Adam was most recently a key corporate account manager at Dwyer, responsible for servicing tier one building automation clients. He holds a degree in organizational leadership and supervision from Purdue University and a diploma in human resources. During his tenure with Dwyer, Adam demonstrated strong performance and leadership in technical building automation sales and distribution. He is keen for new challenges and opportunities to grow personally and professionally. His love for working with clients and building meaningful relationships is closely aligned with the mission of Reliable Controls and mandate of its sales team.

“We are very happy to have Adam join the Reliable Controls team,” says Alan McElhone, vice president of Sales for Reliable Controls. “We’re excited to leverage his insight and fresh perspective.”

Adam enjoys motorsports and is an avid racing fan, including NASCAR and Formula 1. He lives with his family in northwest Indiana. Adam is excited to embark on this next chapter in his career with Reliable Controls.

Reliable Controls is a worldwide leader in building automation and controls, with over 240 factory-certified partners in more than 45 countries and a LEED Platinum-certified office and manufacturing facility in Victoria, Canada.
